

How to Ask Someone to be Your Mentor (eMail Templates)

Emailing a mentor you found in the pool of SimilarMentor:

Option 1:

Hi [MENTOR NAME],

My name is [YOUR NAME] and I saw that you are one of the mentors in the Similarweb mentorship program.

I'm currently working as [YOUR ROLE], a position I've held for [YOUR TENURE]. I've been following your career at Similarweb for a while now, and I have a huge amount of respect for the work you've been doing.

I'm currently exploring potential mentorship opportunities on the topic of [SUBJECT MATTER] and I think that there's a lot that I could learn from you on the subject. I'd love to be able to work more closely with you over a longer period of time if your availability permits.

Please let me know!

Thanks,
[YOUR NAME]

Option 2:

Dear [MENTOR NAME],

I found your information in the Similamentorship program. I see that you are specialized in XXX and I'm really interested in learning more about this field.

I'd love to be able to work more closely with you over a longer period of time if your availability permits.

If you are available, I am able to connect by phone, by email, or in-person, whichever is more convenient for you.

I hope to hear from you soon.

Thank you for your time!

Sincerely,

[YOUR NAME]

Emailing mentor you already know from the pool of SimilarMentor:

Hi [MENTOR NAME],

As you know, I have a huge amount of respect for you and I've learned a lot from you already. I just wanted to drop you a quick email to ask you if you will be my mentor. I'm at a stage in my life and my career in which I feel I could benefit from a little mentoring and guidance.

You've already had such a profound influence on my career that you were the first person who came to mind. I was wondering whether we could meet up for a coffee so that we can talk about this a little further?

Thanks,

[YOUR NAME]
